Third Party Cookies

In some special cases the site will use cookies provided by trusted third parties. The following section details which third party cookies you might encounter through this site.

- This site uses Google Analytics which is one of the most widespread and trusted analytics solution on the web for helping Finding Your Summit to understand how you use the site and ways that it can improve your experience while on the site. These cookies may track things such as how long you spend on the site and the pages that you visit so we can continue to produce engaging content.

For more information on Google Analytics cookies, see the official Google Analytics page.

- Third party analytics are used to track and measure usage of this site so that the company can continue to produce engaging content. These cookies may track things such as: how long you spend on the site or pages you visit which helps Finding Your Summit to understand how it can continually improve the site for you.
- From time to time Finding Your Summit will test new features and make subtle changes to the way that the site is delivered. When testing new features is going on, these cookies may be used to ensure that you receive a consistent experience whilst on the site while ensuring the company understands which optimizations our users appreciate the most.
- As we sell products it's important for Finding Your Summit to understand statistics about how many of the visitors to the site actually make a purchase and as such this is the kind of data that these cookies will track. This is important to you as it means that the company can accurately make business predictions that allow it to monitor the advertising and product costs to ensure the best possible price.

- The Google AdSense service that is used to serve advertising requires a DoubleClick cookie to serve more relevant ads across the web and limit the number of times that a given ad is shown to you.

For more information on Google AdSense see the official Google AdSense privacy FAQ.

- Several partners advertise on our behalf and affiliate tracking cookies simply allow the company to see if our customers have come to the site through one of our partner sites so that we can credit them appropriately and where applicable allow our affiliate partners to provide any bonus that they may provide to you for making a purchase.
- Finding Your Summit uses social media buttons and/or plugins on this site that allow you to connect with your social network in various ways. For these to work the following social media sites (for example, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) set cookies through our site which may be used to enhance your profile on their site or contribute to the data they hold for various purposes outlined in their respective privacy policies.

More Information

Hopefully that has clarified things for you and as was previously mentioned if there is something that you aren't sure whether you need or not it's usually safer to leave cookies enabled in case it does interact with one of the features you use on our site.
